WEAVER IN SUPPORT OF

IN SUPPORT OF SANCTIONS

UNREDACTED VERSION OF DOCUMENT SOUGHT TO BE SEALED

I, Lesley E. Weaver, declare and state as follows:

1. I am an attorney licensed in the State of California and admitted to the United States District Court for the Northern District of California. I am the Partner-in-Charge of the California Office of Bleichmar Fonti & Auld LLP (“BFA”), Co-Lead Counsel for Plaintiffs in In re Facebook, Inc. Consumer Privacy User Profile Litigation, Case No. 18-md-02843-VC (the “MDL”), and a member in good standing of the bar of the State of California and of this Court.

2. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein and, if called as a witness, could and would testify competently to them.

I. SUBSTANTIVE TESTIMONY

3. The depositions of six witnesses have had to be rescheduled due to Facebook’s failure to produce documents from witnesses involved in the ADI. These witnesses are: Eddie O’Neil, Dan Rose, Rob Sherman, Erin Egan, Konstantinos Papamiliadis, and Ime Archibong.

4. Through discovery, Plaintiffs’ counsel have learned that Hive is Facebook’s data-warehousing system, where it maintains and facilitates the querying of data about [REDACTED], in tables and [REDACTED].

5. Having reviewed the voluminous [REDACTED] snapshots that Defendant has now produced for the Named Plaintiffs (106 “snapshots,” consisting of over 170,000 pages of information about the Named Plaintiffs), Plaintiffs’ counsel have observed the following:

A. These records include information not previously available about the Named Plaintiffs’ [REDACTED]

B. They also include information about [REDACTED]

C. The [REDACTED] snapshots [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED], the download-your-information (DYI) files includes a list of datr cookies associated with the Named Plaintiffs, which consists only of a list of hashed alphanumeric identifiers and dates and times.

6. After Plaintiffs sent Facebook's counsel a draft of the 30(b)(6) deposition notice in December 2021, Facebook did not respond until after Plaintiffs had served the operative (and substantively identical) 30(b)(6) notice on March 1 of this year.

7. Facebook's categorical privilege logs have provided document-specific metadata, with each document listed separately for that purpose. Plaintiffs' counsel then had to use that information, along with the categorical claim of privilege, to determine whether to challenge the assertion of privilege on a document-by-document basis. Because Facebook withheld so many documents in full, Plaintiffs' counsel could not be sure which documents were lesser-included documents, or near dupes, merely by looking at the document metadata. Plaintiffs' counsel still had to treat each document individually, an undertaking that required a massive amount of work from those of my colleagues who are working on this part of the litigation.

8. Throughout 2020, Plaintiffs' counsel, during several different meet and confers, explained to counsel for Facebook why the financial information they were requesting was relevant. On those occasions when Facebook's counsel stated that Facebook did not have responsive information, Plaintiffs' counsel consistently expressed disbelief.

9. Production of responsive financial information by Facebook finally began on April 15, 2022.

10. Before January 2022, Facebook had logged fewer than 10,000 documents as privileged (excluding the documents Facebook logged as part of the initial presentation of ADI privilege issues to Judge Corley). On January 28, 2022, Facebook produced an amended categorical privilege log that included documents over which it claimed attorney-client privilege.

11. On the Fourth Amended Categorical Privilege Log (produced by Facebook in April 2022), there were 191,308 entries designated as some form of “Withheld/Withhold.” The Seventh Amended Categorical Privilege Log produced on July 21, 2022 has 130,658 entries designated as some form of “Withheld/Withhold.” The difference between these two figures (i.e., 60,650 entries) consists of 53,168 entries that were dropped completely and presumably produced in full, plus 7,482 entries that were changed from some form of “Withheld/Withhold” to some form of “Redacted.”

12. Facebook informed Plaintiffs on July 17 that Facebook would be producing more than 1,200 ADI documents previously withheld as privileged.
